Café 1505

Café 1505 is owned by the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh and is the perfect place to visit after a tour of Surgeons' Hall Museums. It combines sleek, contemporary styling and stunning hand painted illustrations on the walls and ceiling.

The seating looks onto the peaceful manicured gardens of the College, making it an oasis in a bustling part of the city of Edinburgh. Complimentary WiFi is available with power at most seats - we welcome those working, studying or just having some time out.

We are passionate about food and care about what we produce.

The Café offers a delicious brew of Organic coffee or specialty teas alongside freshly squeezed juice, so you can feel refreshed for the day. From fresh bakery to Grab & Go Lunch, this hidden gem has it all.

If you need another excuse to come in and see us, our profits go towards the Global Surgery Foundation, helping to bring access to safe surgery to the countries that need it most.

WHAT ARE WE DOING?

PROVIDING SURGICAL TRAINING AND EDUCATION

We are at the forefront of surgical training and education. From examinations to education courses, our reach is broad and tailored to the needs of local communities. The nature of our work leads us to engage with a global network of patients, surgeons and academics. By supporting surgeons from the UK and internationally we are able to bring our expertise to parts of the world where there is an acute shortage of surgical care.

SURGEONS HALL MUSEUMS

The Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh was founded in 1505, with the Museums' collections growing significantly from 1699 after 'natural and artificial curiosities' were publically sought. Originally developed as a teaching museum for students of medicine, SHM's fascinating collections, including bone and tissue specimens, artefacts and works of art, have been open to the public since 1832, making SHM among Scotland's oldest museums. The Wohl Pathology Museum is home to one of the largest and most historic collections of surgical pathology in the world.

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS
OF EDINBURGH

FACULTY OF DENTAL SURGERY

The College's Faculty of Dental Surgery promotes excellence in patient care by providing quality-assured assessments and facilitating high standards of education for members of the dental profession.

Established in 1982, it is the largest of the College's faculties with almost 7,000 Fellows and Members worldwide and its own Council. As part of RCSEd's Faculty of Dental Surgery's commitment to supporting professional development and promoting the highest standards of patient care, the Faculty offers a Dental Fellowship without Examination. Please email dental@rcsed.ac.uk for further information.

TRANSFORMING LIVES THROUGH RESEARCH

The Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh is one of the largest supporters of surgical research in the UK. From bowel cancer to improving eye sight, we support research that ultimately transforms lives. Over the last 20 years through research grants and bursaries, the College has committed over £7 million to support over 700 projects in the UK and internationally. Despite this, as the number and quality of applications continues to rise, we urgently need more resources to be able to fund this research.

SUSTAINABILITY POLICY

We are all increasingly mindful of the impact we have on the environment and the need to act responsibly.

Ten Hill Place Hotel plays its part by participating in The Green Tourism Business Scheme, an initiative driven by Visit Scotland, Scotland’s national tourism body. We have been awarded a Gold Green Tourism award – the highest accolade achievable under the scheme.

We aim to achieve the highest standards possible to ensure we fulfil all our green commitments. We have 6 key areas where we all can make our business both more sustainable and kinder to the environment. These six areas and our aims are:

Carbon Footprint	Energy

We work with Ecologi projects the world over to assist with reducing our Carbon Footprint.

Passive sensor Lighting ensures energy output is kept to a minimum.

Reduce & Recycle	Health & Wellbeing
------------------	--------------------

Working with Cyrenians we ensure all our coffee grounds are utilized to help grow fresh fruit and vegetables on a local farm.

Utilizing Equal Exchange Coffee grown by Women to ensure growers are supported.

Sustainable Raw Materials	Social Responsibility
---------------------------	-----------------------

No single use plastics are now used anywhere in our business.

Working with local people to maintain the gardens around Surgeons Quarter.

Full sustainability policy can be found on our website www.tenhillplace.com
